Thin Strips

Would you rather be one of the Mythbusters or an astronaut?

Would you rather change the Earth's shape to be flat or a rectangle?

Would you rather be credited with inventing pi or pie?

Would you rather invent time travel or warp travel?

Would you rather discover a new animal or design an award-winning app?

Would you rather be credited with inventing the periodic table or the theory of relativity?

Would you rather be caught in a lightning storm or a blizzard?

Would you rather travel to Mars as an astronaut or to the bottom of the sea as an oceanographer?

Would you rather rediscover a once-thought extinct animal or solve the mystery of the Bermuda Triangle?

Would you rather be a veterinarian or a dentist?

Would you rather be credited with inventing penicillin or chemotherapy?

Would you rather be able to safely visit the Sun or Pluto?

Would you rather donate your body to science or donate your organs to living people who need them?

Would you rather work with Alexander Graham Bell or Albert Einstein?

Would you rather discover dinosaur fossils or a meteorite in your back yard?

Would you rather teach a science class to 1st graders or 10th graders?

Would you rather have lunch with Henry Ford or Isaac Newton?

Would you rather discover a new planet or a new element?

Would you rather be a scientist in the year 1700 or 2100?

Would you rather own a very powerful telescope or a very powerful microscope?

Would you rather help to design a futuristic flying smart car or work to improve the taste of bland food?

Would you rather spend a day in a super high-tech lab or behind the scenes at a zoo?

Would you rather be a glass maker in ancient Rome or a botanist in Elizabethan England?

Would you rather harvest wheat by hand using a sickle or with a huge machine with 100 buttons and levers?

Would you rather watch the brain in action or the heart in action?

Would you rather own the very first LEGO brick mold ever made or the very first Hot Wheels car mold?

Would you rather be the first person to explore a planet or be the inventor of a drug that cures a deadly disease?

Would you rather have a satellite in space or a mountain on Earth named after you?

Would you rather live for a year without the Internet or live for a year without AC and heating?

Would you rather be an engineer or a mathematician?

Would you rather work with Marie and Pierre Curie or the Wright brothers?

Would you rather be famous for curing cancer or finding the key to immortality?

Would you rather stay on Earth forever or travel for a year with an alien?

Would you rather be able to control fire or water?

Would you rather work for NASA or Apple?

Would you rather work with radio waves or x-rays?

Would you rather create a science fiction show or a reality show featuring real scientists?

Would you rather dissect a frog or let a tarantula crawl on you?

Would you rather have lunch with Clarence Birdseye or George Washington Carver?

Would you rather work for SETI or Facebook?

Would you rather be credited for inventing the bow and arrow or axe?

Would you rather be credited for inventing the television or mapping the genome?

Would you rather study a human mummy or a mummified cat?

Would you rather discover new uses for potatoes or glass?

Would you rather prevent the invention of the atomic bomb or the land mine?

Would you rather hang out with Euclid, studying geometry, or with Louis Pasteur, studying chemistry?

Would you rather be credited with inventing the printing press or smart phone?

Would you rather live in the Star Trek universe or the Star Wars universe?

Would you rather spend your life studying organs or bones?

Would you rather work for Google or Microsoft?
